Take the Holland Tunnel towards 1&9 Pulaski Hyway.

After the tunnel stay to your left for routes 1 & 9.

(To your right is the NJ Turnpike. I don't go that way.)

Again, stay left out of the tunnel, you'll see the road sign for 280 west (& Rt. 7).

Once you pass the fork for 1 & 9 and NJ Turnpike, stay in the right lane.

Follow that road for about 2 miles or less.

Continue looking for the road sign for 280 west.

Enter Rote 280 West, the sign is there, it's dark and kind of hard to see.

Once on 280 West, follow it for about 3 miles or so until exit 14A, Clifton Ave.

Take exit 14 A, past first stop sign, to 1st traffic light.

Make right turn at light.

Follow road about a quarter mile, Branch Brook park entrance is on you left.

Right before this huge Catholic church.

Just snake you way into the park following the signs to the rink.

PS. This route cost no tolls going.
